This exclusion does not apply to notes, records, letters, reports, etc. which are prepared by supervisors in the bargaining unit while in the course of their duties as supervisors. Article 10 - Discharge, Suspension and Discipline

10.01 Principle of Innocence

Both parties agree that an employee is considered innocent until proven guilty. Therefore, in the event the Employer initiates a disciplinary action against an employee who has completed the probationary period and which may result in the suspension or discharge of the employee, the following procedure shall be followed:

10.02 Burden of Proof

In cases of discharge and discipline, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer. Evidence shall be limited to the grounds stated in the discharge or discipline notice to the employee.

10.03 Discipline

Whenever the Employer or its authorized agent deems it necessary to discipline an employee, in a manner indicating that dismissal may follow any further infraction, or may follow if such employee fails to bring their work up to a required standard by a given date the Employer shall, within ten (10) days thereafter, give written particulars of such discipline to the Secretary of the Union, with a copy to the employee involved.

10.04 Crossing of Picket Lines during Strike

While the Collective Agreement is in effect an employee covered by this Collective Agreement shall have the right to refuse to cross a picket line arising out of legal labour disputes. Failure to cross such a legal picket line by a member of this Union shall not be considered a violation of this Collective Agreement, nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action, other than the withholding of salary and benefits for the non-performance of assigned duties.

10.05 Adverse Report

The Employer shall notify an employee in writing of any expression of dissatisfaction concerning the employee's work within ten (10) working days of the event of the complaint, with a copy to the Union. This notice shall include particulars of the work performance which led to such dissatisfaction. If this procedure is not followed, such expression of dissatisfaction shall not become a part of the employee's record for use against the employee at any time. This Article shall be applicable to any complaint or accusation which may be detrimental to an employee's advancement or standing with the Employer, whether or not it relates to the employee's work. The employee's reply to such complaint, accusation or expression of dissatisfaction shall become part of the employee's record.

When management personnel intend to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the CEO/Library Manager or Library Services Manager will notify the Union in advance in order that a Union representative may be present at the interview, upon the request of the employee.

An employee may request that a Union representative be present in a disciplinary meeting with management.

A union steward may discuss a complaint with an employee without loss of pay during his/her regular shift, provided that permission from the CEO/Library Manager or Library Services Manager is obtained prior to the meeting. Such permission is not to be unreasonably withheld provided the time is kept to a minimum.

The records of employees shall not be used against them at any time after twelve (12) months following a suspension or disciplinary action, including letters of reprimand or any adverse reports, provided that no other complaints, reprimands, warnings, or other forms of discipline of a similar or related nature have been imposed over that period.

Article 11 - Seniority

11.01 Seniority Defined

Seniority is defined as length of service in the bargaining unit and shall operate on a bargaining-unit-wide basis. Seniority shall apply to full-time and part-time employees only. Should a temporary employee be hired as a permanent employee, without an interruption in service, the employee shall be credited with seniority from the most recent date of temporary hire and his or her seniority shall be determined accordingly. Seniority shall be used in determining preference or priority for promotions, transfers, demotions, layoff and recall.

11.02 Seniority Lists

Separate seniority lists are maintained for permanent full- and part-time employees. Full-time and part-time seniority reflects seniority date (date of hire) in the bargaining unit. Employees moving from full-time to part-time or vice versa will have their seniority calculated accordingly. The lists shall be revised March 1st and August 1st with a copy to the Union and posted on bulletin boards.

11.03 Part-Time Employees

- (a) Part-time employee seniority and service is based on their date of hire. Service for the purpose of wage progression shall be based on date of hire. A newly hired employee shall be on probation for a period of six (6) months from the date of hiring. During the probationary period, the employee shall be entitled to all rights and benefits pertaining to this Collective Agreement except for the right to grieve on discharge. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the original date of employment.

11.05 Loss of Seniority

An employee shall not lose seniority rights if absent from work because of sickness, accident, lay-off, or leave of absence approved by the Employer. An employee shall only lose seniority in the event the employee:

- a) No employee shall be transferred to a position outside this bargaining unit without the employee's consent.
- b) If an employee accepts a transfer to a permanent position outside the bargaining unit, the employee shall have the right to return to his/her position in the bargaining unit during a trial period, to a maximum of four (4) months.

If the employee returns to the bargaining unit during this time, they shall retain seniority accumulated up to the date of leaving the bargaining unit. However, seniority shall be adjusted for the period of time the employee is outside the bargaining unit.

- c) An employee may accept a temporary assignment of up to twenty-four (24) months in a thirty-six (36) month period without losing their seniority in the bargaining unit. Upon return to the bargaining unit, the employee's seniority date will be adjusted by the number of weeks the employee was in the excluded position.

During this period of leave, the employee will continue to pay union dues based on the rate of pay in the new position. The Employer will continue the current practice of posting non-union positions for consideration of all employees in the Corporation. However, neither such postings nor the selection of the candidate shall be grievable by the Union or its members.

During the period of leave, if the position is replaced with an employee who does not have entitlement to full-time benefits, said employee shall be immediately entitled to said benefits (i.e. No eligibility wait period) as provided to all permanent full-time employees within the Collective Agreement.

11.07 Seniority and Service for CUPE 126 and CUPE 504

Employees covered under the Collective Agreement between the Employer and CUPE Local 126 and/or CUPE 504 entering into this Collective Agreement through the job posting provisions shall upon completion of the trial period, be credited with full seniority and service previously earned under the CUPE Local 126 or CUPE 504 Collective Agreement for all purposes under this Collective Agreement. Seniority for employees entering this collective agreement shall be calculated in accordance with the following:

13.01 Order of Layoff

Both parties recognize that, in lay-off situations, it is desirable to retain employees with greater seniority, while at the same time maintaining an effective and efficient workforce. Therefore, in the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off in reverse order of their respective seniority list (full-time/part-time) in their job classification.

13.02 Bumping

An employee who is subject to layoff shall have the right to accept the layoff or displace a less senior employee from their respective seniority list (full-time/part-time) from the same or different classification in a position for which they possess the minimum qualifications and requirements. An employee so displaced shall be deemed to have been laid off and shall be entitled to notice in accordance with Article 13.13.

13.03 Notice of Intention to Bump

An employee who chooses to exercise the right to displace another employee with lesser seniority from their respective seniority list (full-time/part-time) shall advise the employer of their intention and the position claimed within seven (7) working days after receiving the notice of layoff.

13.04 Opportunity of Recall

An employee shall have an opportunity of recall from layoff in order of seniority based on their respective seniority list (full-time/part-time), to an available opening for a period of twenty-four (24) months from the date of the original layoff, provided they have the ability to perform the work. Refusal to accept a job in a temporary and/or short-term capacity shall not remove the employee's right to recall.

13.05 Ability to Perform Work of New Position

An employee who bumps, or is bumped, or is recalled shall have thirty (30) working days to demonstrate their ability to perform the duties of the new position in a satisfactory manner.

In determining the ability of an employee to perform the work for the purposes of the paragraphs above, the Employer shall not act in an arbitrary or unfair manner.

13.06 Right of Return to Previous Position

An employee recalled to work in a different classification from which they were laid off shall have the privilege of returning to the position held prior to the layoff should it become vacant within twelve (12) months of being recalled.

13.07 Method of Recall

Failure to signify intention to return to work after recall from layoff within ten (10) working days following notification by registered mail to the employee's last address of record shall be deemed to be a rejection of the position offered.

13.08 No Conversion of Full Time to Part Time Duties

No full-time employee within the bargaining unit shall be laid off based on the duties for their position being reassigned to one or more part-time employees. In a case where a substantial part of a position is eliminated, however, the remaining duties may be reassigned to one or more part-time employees.

13.09 Continuation of Benefits

The Employer agrees to continue to pay its share of the health benefits for employees who are laid off for a period of up to six (6) months.

In the event of a longer lay-off, the affected employee may, at their own expense, elect to continue these benefits for a further six (6) months provided the premiums are paid in advance or by post dated cheques, to maintain the coverage.

13.10 Laid-off Employee Assistance

In the case of permanent lay-off(s) the Joint Union Management Committee may recommend appropriate assistance for the affected employee(s) to the Employer. Such assistance may include the establishment of a Redeployment Committee.

13.13 Notice of Layoff

- (a) The Employer shall notify permanent and probationary employees who are to be laid off at least ten (10) working days before the layoff is to be effective. If the employee has not had the opportunity to work ten (10) full days after layoff notice, the employee shall be paid in lieu of work for that part of ten (10) full days.
- (b) Employees with five (5) years of continuous permanent service or more will receive six (6) months notice of a layoff in advance of the actual date of layoff.
- (c) Employees with less than five (5) years of continuous permanent service, but with a minimum of two (2) years, will receive two (2) months of notice of a layoff in advance of the actual date of layoff.

An employee may request an adjustment to this schedule without overtime provisions to allow for a six (6) day work week to be followed by a four (4) day work week, which shall be subject to approval by the Employer. The Chief Custodian shall work a forty (40) hour week.

Full-time employees may work a schedule that differs from the parameters noted in 14.01 (a), as mutually agreed. Such agreement shall not reduce the Monday to Saturday complement of full-time schedules as of January 1, 2020.

(b) Working Schedule

The hours and days of work of each employee shall be posted in an appropriate place at least two (2) weeks in advance. The Employer shall, after agreement with the Union, set forth the working schedule of each department, hereinafter referred to as the "Work Schedule". The schedule shall only be altered to meet emergency situations. No employee shall be scheduled to work a split shift unless mutually agreed to.

(c) Paid Rest Period

An employee shall be permitted a rest period of fifteen (15) consecutive minutes in the first half and in the second half of a shift in an area made available by the Employer.

(d) Flextime - Full-Time Employees

Flexible hours of work, or flextime, is a system designed to provide for the individual preferences of permanent full-time employees while at the same time ensuring the efficient operation of the Employer's service.

- 2) Hours of Work, Weekly and Daily

3) Calculation of Days Off

In calculating flextime hours, days off and holidays shall be counted as seven (7) hours.

(c) A regular work schedule shall be determined by the Library Services Manager. The employee shall, whenever possible, be given reasonable notice where the work schedule is altered temporarily or permanently. Employees shall be scheduled to have at least two (2) Saturdays in every four (4) off duty, unless mutually agreed to.

(d) Sunday shifts will be divided equally among the existing complement of qualified part-time staff by seniority. Part-time staff shall not be required to sign up for more than 17 Sundays in a calendar year. Nothing in this agreement shall preclude a part-time employee from volunteering for additional shifts. Should an insufficient number of qualified employees volunteer, the Employer has the right to assign on a rotational basis commencing with the least senior qualified employee.

- (e) If an employee elects to hold two part-time positions, the employee shall not exceed forty-eight (48) hours in a two week period, but will be required to work the requisite number of Sundays for each position as stated in this collective agreement.

- (f) Working Schedule

It is agreed that part-time employees may work, on a call in basis, in excess of forty-eight (48) hours over a consecutive two (2) week period and the Union agrees that these employees would not be considered full-time employees.

Any additional call-ins shall be offered on a rotational basis by seniority. For the purpose of these call-ins, seniority shall be determined by the date of hire.

- (g) Rest Periods

Each employee shall be entitled to a one half (1/2) hour unpaid eating period if they worked more than five (5) hours, in an area made available by the Employer. Each employee shall be permitted one fifteen (15) minute, paid rest period in each shift of three and one half (3½) hours or more, unless the employee is working a full time shift of seven (7) hours or more, in which case the employee shall be permitted a 15 minute paid break in each half of the shift and one (1) thirty (30) minute unpaid break.

When a full-time or part-time employee attends a scheduled meeting, including but not limited to department, staff, and/or a committee meeting pursuant to this Collective Agreement or otherwise, they shall be paid at their appropriate rate of pay for a minimum of three (3) hours.

It is agreed that this meeting time does not form part of the distribution of part-time hours identified in Article 14.02.

Article 15.04 shall only apply in the event that the meeting is a last minute call in. If the meeting is scheduled at least one (1) month in advance, the shift shall be interpreted to be a scheduled shift and not a call in.

Article 15 - Overtime

15.01 Overtime Defined - Full-Time Employees

Overtime at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) of the employee's regular hourly rate shall be paid in the event an employee is required to work in excess of their regular day, over and above thirty-five (35) hours per week (forty – 40 hours in the case of custodian staff), or on their regularly scheduled day off. Overtime at the rate of two (2) times the employee's regular hourly rate shall be paid in the event employees are required to work on a Sunday (where in excess of their scheduled work week) or statutory holiday. In the event that part-time employees are required to work a statutory holiday, they will be paid their regular hourly rate, plus an over-time rate of time and a half (1 1/2) for the actual number of hours worked.

15.03 Banked Time

A full-time employee shall have the option of accumulating overtime, and banking lieu time, rather than being paid for such time. Should the employee wish to accumulate overtime and lieu time, the employee shall advise their supervisor within twenty-four (24) hours of the working of such overtime. Overtime shall be accumulated at the appropriate rate as defined by this Collective Agreement and may be taken as paid leave at any time mutually agreeable to the Employer and employee. It is recognized that employees utilizing vacation will receive preference over employees utilizing banked time in the scheduling of time off. Banked time shall not exceed seventy (70) hours at any time. Banked time, including time accumulated under Article 16, which is not utilized or schedule as of December 1st in any year (to be used between January 1 and December 31) shall be paid out or the employee shall have the option of requesting the carryover of thirty-five (35) hours of banked time to the following calendar year.

15.04 Call Back Pay Guarantee

An employee who is called in to work outside regular working hours shall be paid for a minimum of three (3) hours at overtime rates unless the call-in is immediately prior to their normal work day, in which there would be no minimum.

15.05 Time Off in Lieu of Overtime

Instead of cash payment for overtime, an employee may choose to receive time off at the appropriate overtime rate at a time selected by the employee subject to the approval of the Library Services Manager.

15.06 Sharing of Overtime

Overtime and call-back opportunities shall be divided equally among the employees who are willing and qualified to perform the work that is available.

October 1st -15th for the period of January to June of the following year.

March 1st – 15th for July to December of the same year.

The CEO/Library Manager or Library Services Manager will make every effort to approve and post the vacation schedule by the 30th of October and 30th of March and will provide employees with their accrued vacation prior to the October 1st to 15th sign up.

If there is a conflict between employees as to their choice of vacation time during the sign up periods identified above, then seniority shall govern.

Every effort shall be made to accommodate vacation and/or leave requests. Should vacation request be denied, the CEO/Library Manager or Library Services Manager will provide an explanation.

17.04 Unbroken Vacation Period

Finally, and notwithstanding the above, the CEO/Library Manager, prior to approval shall consider preference for full week request over partial week requests.

17.05 Vacation Entitlement

- (a) An employee with less than one (1) year's service as of July 1st in any calendar year shall be allowed paid vacation at the rate of one (1) day for each complete calendar month of service, to a maximum of eight (8) days provided the employee commenced work on the first working day of the month.

17.08 Vacation for Part-Time Employees

a) Part-time employees shall receive annual vacation as follows:

Number of Hours Worked from dated of hire as of December 31 st	Vacation Pay Entitlement	Vacation Time (per 17.08 b)
0-1,820	4%	2 weeks
5,460*	6%	3 weeks
12,740	8%	4 weeks
27,300	10%	5 weeks
40,040	12%	6 weeks

* 3 weeks and 6% vacation pay will apply at 5,460 hours or 5 years of service, whichever comes first, in order to comply with the Employment Standards Act, as amended from time to time.

- b) Vacation time is based on hours paid in the previous calendar year's pay periods. Vacation time shall be calculated at a rate of three and a half (3.5) hours per one hundred and eighty-two (182) hours worked for each week of entitlement as follows:

Entitlement	Calculation
2 weeks	Previous year's hours/182 x 7
3 weeks	Previous year's hours/182 x 10.5
4 weeks	Previous year's hours/182 x 14
5 weeks	Previous year's hours/182 x 17.5
6 weeks	Previous year's hours/182 x 21

Example: An employee worked 1,000 hours in the previous year and has 13,000 total hours worked. The calculation would be $1000/182 \times 14 = 76.92$ hours, which would be rounded to 77 hours.

- c) Vacation pay is paid at the time vacation is used. Any outstanding vacation pay amount will be paid out at pay period 50. No unpaid vacation time will be authorized until the employee's vacation time bank is depleted.
- d) Vacation entitlement must be taken in the subsequent calendar year.
- e) Vacation may be taken in single days or one (1) week, two (2) week or three (3) week blocks with the approval of the CEO/Library Manager or designate.
- f) Employees are required to take a minimum of 2 weeks free from work as vacation.

17.09 Part-time to Full-time Status

An employee who is disabled and unable to work as a result of quarantine due to exposure to a contagious disease, illness or injury, not compensable under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, shall be entitled to salary continuance from the first day of disability and continuing for up to seventeen (17) weeks, or until the employee is declared medically fit to return to work, resigns or retires, whichever first occurs.

18.02 Full-Time Employees

- (a) Entitlement to short-term disability benefits shall be based on the length of service as a permanent, full-time employee calculated from the employee's date of permanent hire, according to the following schedule:

Length of Service from date of Permanent Hire	100% of Salary	75% of Salary
less than three months	no coverage	no coverage
3 months but less than 1 year	1 week	16 weeks
1 year but less than 2 years	2 weeks	15 weeks
2 years but less than 3 years	3 weeks	14 weeks
3 years but less than 4 years	4 weeks	13 weeks
4 years but less than 5 years	5 weeks	12 weeks
5 years but less than 6 years	7 weeks	10 weeks
6 years but less than 7 years	9 weeks	8 weeks
7 years but less than 8 years	11 weeks	6 weeks
8 years but less than 9 years	13 weeks	4 weeks
over 9 years	17 weeks	0 weeks

For the purpose of this plan, salary means the amount of money to be paid to the employee as established the first date of absence, or, as modified by the Board. Other definitions are clarified in the City of Peterborough By-law #1988-252.

- (b) Should an employee be ill for an extended period on one (1) or more occasions in a calendar year such that the employee exhausts his/her short term protection at 100% salary, coverage for new illnesses will be available for seventeen (17) weeks at 75% of salary.

Note: If an employee stops being totally disabled while satisfying the seventeen (17) week, Long Term Disability qualifying period, and within thirty days becomes totally disabled again from the same or related causes, the disability is considered to be a continuation of the previous disability.

- (c) In the case of illness of a member of an employee's immediate family, where there is no one at the employee's home other than the employee who can provide for the needs of the ill person, the employee may with the approval of the Manager, Human Resources, be entitled to use a maximum of five (5) sick days per illness, to care for the ill family member. The CEO/Library Manager or designate, may approve a single day of the family care provision. The employee is required to provide written verification of the absence due to illness of a family member.

(Refer to the Master Long Term Disability Insurance Contract for further details regarding All Source Maximum for Monthly Disability Benefit and Payment of Monthly Disability Benefit.)

In order to be eligible for long term disability benefits, an employee must have a medically determinable physical or mental impairment due to non compensable illness or disease, that prevents him/her from performing the regular duties of the job in which he participated immediately preceding the disability. Benefits for eligible disabilities shall be payable after a waiting period of seventeen (17) weeks, subject to the terms and conditions of the Master Long Term Disability insurance contract.

If an employee returns to work from long term disability and within six (6) months of his/her return to work becomes totally disabled again from the same or a related cause, the disability and entitlement to Long Term disability benefits shall be considered to be a continuation of the previous disability.

It is understood that the terms and conditions of the long term disability policy are not subject to the grievance provisions of this agreement.

- (e) The Employer shall pay and keep in force one hundred (100) percent of the cost of Employer Health Tax, Semi-Private Hospital, Extended Health, Dental Care and Vision benefits for the first two (2) years of long-term disability payments. In addition, the Employer shall extend such coverage for employees, remaining disabled within the terms of the long-term disability contract for an additional year for each year of full-time employment with the Employer in excess of two (2) years.

The health benefits recited in Article 22 shall remain in effect when an employee is a recipient of short-term benefits pursuant to the Plan.

- (f) Seniority, vacation entitlement and job security shall continue for disabled employees qualifying for short-term and long-term disability benefits subject to the following restrictions:

- (1) vacation entitlement would continue when the employee qualifies and is receiving short-term disability benefits only; future vacation entitlement will be prorated once the employee returns from LTD. It is agreed that the proration will only affect the number of days they receive in that vacation year but shall not affect the progression from one level of vacation entitlement to the next; and

- (2) a position will be held available for an employee from the initial date of disability which necessitates continuous absence from employment.

18.03 Part-Time Employees

Should the employee fail to comply, wages will not be paid.

Depending on the disability, medical certificates will be accepted from the following medical practitioners; physicians, psychologists, chiropractors, physiotherapists, dentists, nurse practitioners and midwives.

- b) Notification of Absence

An employee absent from work due to illness or health related treatment is required to notify the CEO/Library Manager or designate as soon as possible, prior to the commencement of the shift to advise the CEO/Library Manager or designate that the employee is unable to perform their duties due to illness and indicate the probable date of return. Employees who are unable to report to work on any shift shall advise their Supervisors at least one (1) hour, where possible, prior to the commencement of their shift.

If the membership exceeds 100 members, then the number of representatives to attend the annual convention or other conferences of the union, shall be three (3) representatives.
